Manalapan Township Police Department Seeks Domestic Violence Response Volunteers: You Can Make a Difference

Manalapan Township Police Department is currently recruiting volunteers to serve on the Manalapan Domestic Violence Response Team (DVRT). In affiliation with 180 Turning Lives Around (180), and with the assistance of the response team volunteers, Manalapan Township Police Department continues to make this free, 24/7 confidential service available to victims of domestic violence in the aftermath of a highly emotional and traumatic experience.

180's volunteer DVRT Victim Advocates are civilian members of the community who work collaboratively with law enforcement to provide support, information, and resources to victims of domestic violence at police headquarters. Advocates also discuss with victims safety planning and their legal rights in regard to obtaining a Temporary Restraining Order. By providing support and crucial perspective of the situation, these specially-trained advocates help to empower victims to make informed decisions for themselves and their families.

180 will be conducting the mandatory 40-hour training course for new DVRT volunteers April 26th - May 18th, 6:00p-9:30p, in-person and via Zoom on Tuesdays/Wednesdays/Thursdays. (Week 1 is in-person at Holmdel Community Center, Weeks 2 & 3 are via Zoom, Week 4 is in-person at Ocean Township Courtroom on MON 5/16, TU 5/17, WED 5/18). 180's current Covid19 precautions include that masks are required to be worn and 6-foot distancing maintained. We will advise if there are any changes to that policy. We will shift to all Zoom, if necessary. Training will be provided free of charge to successful applicants. Applications are currently being accepted. Deadline to apply is April 8th.

Basic requirements for volunteers to apply include that they must be eighteen years of age or older, have access to reliable transportation, possess a valid driver's license, be willing to serve on an on-call shift basis, participate in an interview process, submit to background investigations and fingerprinting, successfully complete the mandatory training, and attend monthly supervisory meetings. Manalapan Township Police Department and 180 are committed to a culturally and socially diverse team to better serve the community. Bi-lingual capability is helpful. Prior knowledge of domestic violence is not required. The identities of the DVRT volunteers are kept anonymous. Please contact Detective Jennie Rae Hensley, Manalapan Township Police Department, DVRT DVLO, at 732 446-8392, to obtain an application or for additional information. Applications are also available for download at <https://180nj.org/give-help/volunteer/volunteer-advocate-for-victims-of-domestic-violence/>
